

Authentic Tuscan food from Florence in Duluth, GA for Lunch, Takeout and Dinner

Chef SayWhen, Italian Gourmet, opens location in Duluth, GA

Duluth, GA (PRWeb) November 11, 2008 -- Seien Raugei, chef and founder of Chef SayWhen, LLC is proud to announce the opening of its new location at Mall Corners Shopping Center in Duluth, GA.

Chef SayWhen offers authentic Tuscan food in a contemporary open kitchen environment for lunch, dinner, take-out and catering.

Its menu includes traditional Tuscan recipes dating back to the Renaissance such as Penne Strasciate (penne pasta with hearty meat and porcini mushroom sauce) and Arista di Maiale (roasted pork loin with spices).

"Chef SayWhen is my life's dream to offer a high quality culinary experience at an affordable price" said Seien Raugei.

About Chef SayWhen:

Chef Seien Raugei trained in Italy and New York prior to her moving to Atlanta. She has worked as a private chef for some of the most prominent families in Atlanta.

Her recent catering events include the Georgia Tech and Polytechnic of Torino Universities joint degree conference as well as the reception in honor of Umberto Eco (prominent Italian writer) organized by the Italy-Atlanta Foundation (<http://www.italyatlantafoundation>).

For additional information, contact:

Paolo Raugei

404-345-3103

paolo @ chefsaywhen.com

###

Contact Information

Paolo Raugei

Chef SayWhen, LLC

<http://www.chefsaywhen.com>

404-345-3103

Online Web 2.0 Version

You can read the online version of this press release here.

PRWebPodcast Available

Listen to Podcast MP3 Listen to Podcast iTunes Listen to Podcast OGG